PROGRAM

DON BECKWITH introduced Judy Harris of the Midland Quilters and presented her a check for $250 from Kiwassee. She has been active with the Quilters for many years. She recently sent 100 quilts to a Hospital for children with Aids in South Africa. These were delivered to South Africa by Kiwassee member Bruce Vickey who was on a trip there. The number of quilts sent there now stands at 400. Over the years more than 17,000 quilts have been sent by the Quilters to places in the U.S. and other countries. Kiwassee has helped a lot and the Key Clubs have been involved. The number of quilters is usually 15 to 20. There is a continued need for cloth and financial help.
