CLUB ELECTIONS

President Ray conducted club elections for the 2009-2010 Kiwanis year. Renee Yates was elected President, Vicki Briggs Vice President, Jim Morgan Treasurer, Bob Davidson Secretary, and Jack Higgins Secretary. Al Burmester, Mike Feider, and Joe Malan were elected to the Board of Directors. Ray also announced that Bob Ralston has resigned as Treasurer, and that Mike Feider has agreed to run for that position. The election for Mike will be held next Tuesday.

ANNUAL PIG AUCTION

President Ray introduced our esteemed Pig Master and superb Auctioneer, Don Winger. Ray also suggested we now call our annual auction the "Ed Flagg Memorial Pig Auction", since Ed always did so much to make the auctions fun and profitable—he always bought more stuff than anyone else. There were lots of really good items for sale, which members got at bargain prices—all the way from bagel slicers to digital cameras to 1000 watt work lights. Mike Briggs bought Vicki a set of ladies golf clubs. Don wondered why he didn't buy a set from his brother. Treasurer Jim Morgan reported that the club made $368 on the auction.
