ANNOUNCEMENTS

Martha Briggs: Come to the AKtion Club Talent Show, see above. CROP Walk receipts are available.

Roger Briggs: Foundation meeting after next week's meeting, 10/18.

Brian Goodwill: Two signup sheets are being circulated: Invocations and Salvation Army bell ringing. We will ring at Kroger and indoors at the mall.

Cal Hoerneman: T&A begins 10/18 with a trip to Paris. Envelopes are due next Tuesday with customer lists, cash, checks.

Larry McCoy: Club News and Publicity meeting next week, and membership picture taking will start.

Jim Morgan: CROP participant action pictures are on the Kiwassee website. Remember to use the Kiwassee online store to make purchases when holiday shopping because we get money back.

Rudy Phillips: Junior Youth will meet next week with Dick Skochdopole.

Jim Young: Flag project needs a wagon or cart to transport flags. Anybody have an extra to share?

Doug Snoddy: Key Club meetings are starting. There will be 2 sessions on Wednesdays, 2:30 and 3:30, and each will only take about 15 minutes. Sign up to attend a meeting and show Kiwassee support. The ROCK Fall Fundraiser tickets are available.

Diane Stevens: Community Service presented a $650 check to Lori Wood and Jackie Maxwell, For A Brighter Tomorrow.

Guests: Steve Fry of St. Laurents Brothers, our supplier for our Nut & Candy Fundraiser, was our guest.

Fred Honerkamp: Keep Gene Moore's wife in your thoughts and prayers. Gene's research has persuaded his wife's doctor to try a novel treatment for her Alzheimer's symptoms. There seems to be some improvement after MRI sessions.

NUT & CANDY FUNDRAISER: GREAT QUALITY, GREAT PRICE, GREAT PROJECT

Our Nut & Candy fundraiser will begin with St. Laurent Brothers product delivered on Saturday, November 5 to the Salvation Army store location at 10am. The store will open for the first time on November 8, after the general meeting. Store hours are Tuesday and Thursday, 1:30pm to 5:30pm, and Saturday, 9am to 1pm. December 17 will be the last day to return product, with December 22 the last day of sales. Volunteers will be needed to staff the store.

Sales target this year is $30,900. We offer sixteen superior products from a local confectioner, St. Laurent Brothers: pistachio nuts, super snack mix, chocolate caramel balls, Christmas pretzels, peanut brittle, chocolate covered peanuts, cashews, mixed nuts, dark chocolate almonds, Nibbler of chocolate covered peanuts and cashews, pecan/caramel nut clusters, party trays, red chocolate cherries, truffles, and chocolate mint balls. These treats are perfectly timed for holiday gift giving, hostess gifts, party contributions, office gifts, and general snacking. Proceeds all go to support our local, national, and international projects that aid children, families, and communities. Donations of treats can also be made to organizations.

The Nut Team members are Al Burmester, Store Czar, Jim Rajewski, Cheerleader, Dick Jellum, Cheerleader, Aaron Oberlin, Accountant, Bill Krueger, Cashier, Cal Hoerneman and Fred Honerkamp, Super Duper Sales Dudes.

Storekeepers' duties are to arrive on time for the scheduled shift. Contact Al before your shift about Store keys. Place check out supplies on the table. After a Kiwassee member fills out the form, Storekeeper should double check items selected and the math on the form and sign the checkout sheet. Return supplies to the cabinet at the end of the shift, securely lock cabinets and room doors. DO NOT leave envelopes with money at the Store. Turn them in at meetings to a Nut & Candy team member.

NEXT WEEK: President Fred's Report, Greeter: Mike Cronenberger, Invocation: Sam Choo
