

CALENDAR

- Sat, Nov 19 Santa Parade. Be at Midland High School parking lot at 9:30
- Tues. Dec 6 Eastlawn School Christmas Party 11:30-1:00
- Tues Dec 20 Kiwassee annual Christmas Party with guests
- Sat. Dec 19 Gene Woodward memorial service First United Methodist Church 11:00 am

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Martha Briggs: we have a table at the ARC luncheon at H Hotel December 1, 11:30-1:00 Sign up
- Al Burmester: Salvation Army nuts/candy store sales are off to a good start. Sign up to be storekeepers on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays. Be sure to have the storekeeper check and verify your paperwork before leaving the premises.
- Duane Townley. He and Diane Stevens now have information on kids' needs for Salvation Army Christmas presents. Get one to gift a child.
- Roger Briggs. Still accepting donations for Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation annual gifting.
- Brian Goodwill. Still has a few openings for Salvation Army bell ringing. He is Santa Parade Grand Marshal this year!!
- Larry McCoy Get your picture taken for our photo album update.
- Al Forster said there are still eight members who haven't paid current dues. PAY UP
- Aaron Oberlin He is setting up a nuts/candy sale table at the Tennis Center this Friday. Consider doing this for a venue where you visit/participate
- Jim Young & John Congleton thanked all members who participated in one way or another in the Flag Project this year. Kudos to Jim & John!
- Fred Honerkamp did a great job as the keynote speaker at the Veterans Day program
- Dave Winegardner is performing at the Saints & Sinners Lounge in the Center for the Arts Thursday at 6:00

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

Doug Snoddy introduced three Key Clubbers who are leaders in the organization and who attended the Fall Rally this year. Samantha is now on the Michigan Key Club board and is editor of their publication. Anna, a past president, is now the Michigan Key Club board secretary. Carter was recognized as one of the most active Key Clubbers this year—involvement in everything!!

PROGRAM Even-numbered committee reports

CLUB MEETINGS: These folks set it up for us every week. They have scheduled the steak fry for June at Emerson Park

FUND RAISING. Cal Hoerneman : Dave Winegardner is the co-chair and Cal will phase out. GOLF tournament will be co-chaired by Betsy Sullivan and Porter Brown, with a July date this year. FLAG PROJECT: We are striving for more corporate/cluster sponsors plus special occasion placements. T & A: 91% of members participated this year, but total sales were down 10%; donated sales were down 30%. They are looking for more $500 sponsors. NUTS & CANDY: Dick Jellum will be taking over responsibility with Aaron Oberlin keeping track of things with new Quicken software.

COMMUNITY SERVICE; Dick Jellum said they will continue the traditional holiday projects and continue to support Walk for Warmth, CROP, Camp Fish Tails, New Hope Village. They are looking for more sweat equity projects.

JR YOUTH: Dick Skochdopole. This committee helps and encourages children in the age range from 5 to 13 years old by steering them into worthwhile activities. They have 12 projects including the Eastlawn Christmas party, Tri-Kids Triathlon. They hope to add two new projects this year.

YOUNG CHILDREN PRIORITY 1 Betsy Sullivan and Karen Adams are co-chairs. They are reviewing their projects in the fields of infant and maternal health for the upcoming year. One special note is they gave 200 books to Head Start. They also help at the Santa House.

During the last two meetings all the committees have given us their reports of what they will be working on and how they will help us all make this a better place to live and, hopefully, a better world for everyone. Good job, well done.