ANNOUNCEMENTS

Martha Briggs: Sign up to volunteer in one of many capacities at the CROP Walk, Sunday, October 1. CarolAnne Guillemette will join Martha in taking CROP Walk donations. Golf committee members can pick up addressed envelopes and notes to send to sponsors whose support they solicited, including anyone who donated $100 or more in door prizes and/or silent auction items.
Roger Briggs: Roger invited Gary Vogel to present Kenny Steinhilber with a check for $900 from the Kiwassee Foundation for his Eagle project—a series of arrows, posts, and reflectors to mark the Stratford Woods trail cross-country runners use in meets.
Brian Goodwill: Last week's invocation sign-up sheet yielded a few double-booked dates, order has been restored.
Dick Jellum: (via Happy Dollars) Gordon Rogers made Dick's day by agreeing replace Al Burmester as the Candy & Nut Czar!
Alex Rapanos: Alex is captain of Kiwassee's table at Creative 360's fundraiser Tuesday, October 10. See him if you can tear yourself from our weekly meeting to attend. There is no charge for the meal, but plan to bring your checkbook—cha ching!
Ray Senesac: Donated tickets to Travel and Adventure have been distributed to area non-profits; Andy Thompson will deliver North Midland Family Center's. ALL T&A TICKETS AND MONEY ARE DUE NEXT WEEK! See Ray for T&A supplies.
Duane Townley: This year's First Graders' Christmas Party is at the new Central Park Elementary School December 12 at 11:30. The evening Kiwanis Club will provide gifts for two classes and we will for three. Logistics will change to allow everyone to enjoy their McDonald's lunch and for Santa to deliver a gift to each of the 130+ students, all in 45 minutes.
Fred Honerkamp: The Board of Directors meets this Thursday at noon at Memorial Presbyterian Church.

GUEST: Bill Betts is promoting this weekend's Walk to End Alzheimer's. You can donate to the purple can circulating today or visit www.alz.org/midland and follow the links to donate by credit card.

PROGRAM: Even-numbered Committee Reports (chairs/presenters' names are bold-faced)

JUNIOR YOUTH: Dick Schodopole, Rudy Phillips, Susan Love, Duane Brooks, Joe Downey, Mike Feider, Millard Kent, Eugene Moore, Walt Rupperecht, Duane Townley, Jim Young. The committee supported the following events and initiatives: Community Thanksgiving Baskets, Eastlawn Elementary School's Attendance Incentive Program, Eastlawn Christmas Party, 4-H's Babysitting Class, Coleman Schools Summer Program, Tall in the Saddle, and the Midland Tennis Center scholarship fund. Speakers included Malina Garcia on Gary Kerestes's bridge at the WMFC, Andrea Kratzer on Floyd Elementary School, Carol Alver on "What to say when you don't know what to say," and Nicole Atkinson on FBI and other Law Enforcement.

FUND RAISING: Dave Winegardner, Cal Hoerneman, Roger Briggs, Al Burmester, Chuck Gartner, Fred Honerkamp, Ray Senesac, Bill Spaulding, Jim Young. The club has four fund-raisers each year: Travel and Adventure in August/September, ($6385—36% net return); Candy and Nuts in November/December ($8025—29% net return); Flags in April/May ($9272—89% net return); and the Golf Outing in June/July ($7222—62% net return), for a total of $30,904 to spend on a variety of programs that benefit children and youth in Midland and around the world.

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Dick Jellum, Diane Stevens, Martha Briggs, Roger Briggs, John Clary, John Congleton, Ron Graunke, Millard Kent, Al Klashak, Bill Kuehne, Roger Moll, Aaron Oberlin, Rudy Phillips, Alex Rapanos, Jim Young. The committee participated in several projects, including Crop Walk, Adopt a Highway, Pinecrest Picnic, Senior X-mas Parties, and Adopt a Family. The following groups received monetary donations from the committee: Thanksgiving Baskets, Cleveland Manor X-mas Party, Senior Centers X-mas Parties, Adopt-a-Family, Walk for Warmth, The Bridge, For a Brighter Tomorrow, and Friends of Crop, for a total of $2800.

CLUB MEETINGS: Ron Graunke, Ron Keller, Mike Feider, Art Leadbetter, Mike McNulty, Jim Morgan, Bob Nankee, Gerry Schwark. This committee does everything we take for granted at our weekly meetings: the meeting sign on Jefferson St.; the table settings; the lectern, mike, and computer; the banners; the name tags; the pig/Happy Dollars money...BRAVO!

REMINDERS: The Board of Directors meets this Thursday at noon at Memorial Presbyterian Church. Refer to the Calendar and Announcements for other important dates. Come enjoy Center Stage's production of Fiddler on the Roof, with our own
